Please explain how this grant will help you as you pursue your professional career:

Old Barnwell's mission is to bring people together through golf. What does the sport mean to you, and how has it impacted your life off the course?

If you weren't pursuing a career in professional golf, what would you be doing instead?

OLD BARNWELL

For all who love it

In a perfect world with infinite resources, what are two things you would do to expand golf's impact and reach?

What are your short-term goals as a touring professional?

As you pursue a career in professional golf, how do you intend to use golf to "give back" in the long-term?
